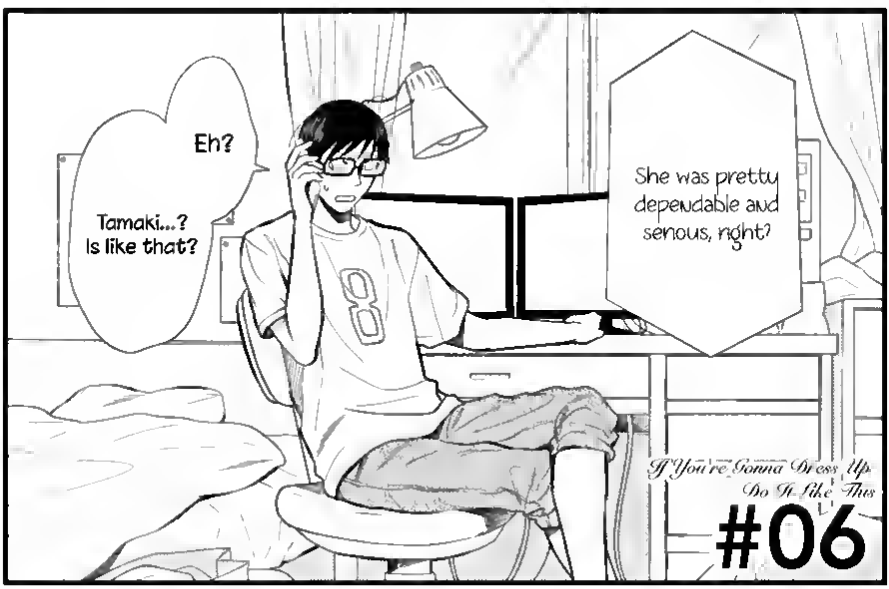
OK~ Then we'll leave it at that.
Yeah
We'll make adjustments later if necessary
The preparations for our next reunion are almost done

Talking about the past reminded me of her.
I can't remember what she was like very well though.

Come to think of it you have a little sister right, Yuusuke?
That's right, Tamaki-chan
Yeah? Tamaki?



Eh?
Tamaki...? Is like that?
She was pretty dependable and serious, right?

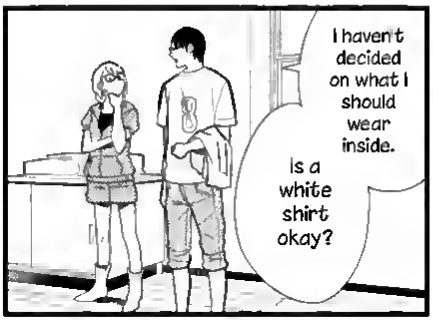
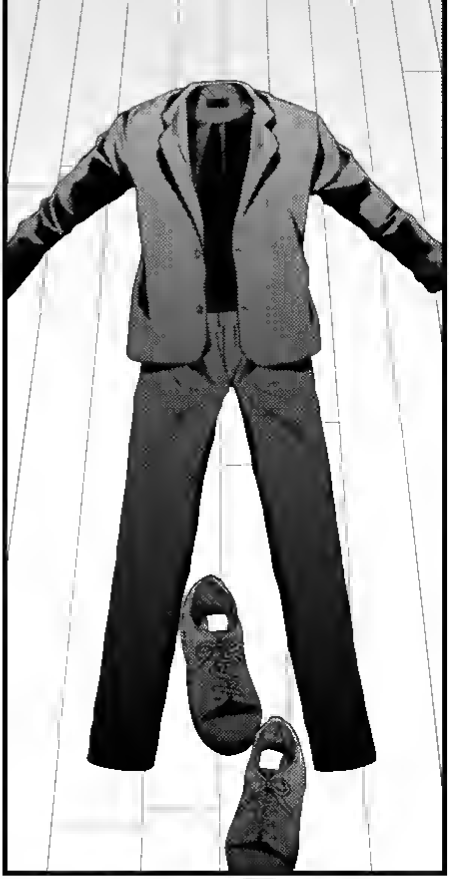
Sob Sob
My friend said she found this cool game... So she emailed it to me... And I opened it...
It's not my fault...
It's not my fault...
Guh
You're still angry at the computer...?
You're really bad at electronics, huh.
I get it, I understand... Just calm down.
Now that you've mentioned it, my tablet broke the other day...
Don't tell me you were punching and kicking it...
I did not!
I'm innocent!
Innocent people don't break other people's stuff...

I said I was going to start using LINE,
but I still hesitate on switching to a smartphone.
Ah yeah?
Compatible_?
I'm really not compatible with electronics...
Thanks onii-chan. I've calmed down now.
Did I bother you too much?
Be careful next time
No, not really...
I was just on the phone talking about the reunion.
We were just about done anyway.
Really?
Then coordination is our next focal point!
Swift



I haven't decided on what I should wear inside.
Is a white shirt okay?



Something like this. Like a suit...
Hmm...

It's a reunion, let's go with a Kattosou instead.
Bring out the ones you have.

Something to show off your mature style is cool and all,
Feels like you're going to work but it'll be too much like a suit if we go overboard.

What in the world is a Kattosou...
Really...
.....
Cut & Sewn
Kattosou means "Cut and Sewn".
It's a generic term for clothes that were made by cutting up cloth and sewing it together.
It's usually just used to refer to T-shirts though.
The term includes polo-shirts too.
Ah... that's right. I forgot.
Onii-chan's T-shirts are a little...
.....
Bring the T-shirts you have down here, onii-chan.
Sure!

EXOTIC T-SHIRT MOUNTAIN
梅雨
Baa-ang
Do you have anything else? Like a plain white shirt? You wore one before right?
What? So those are fine too?
The collar is all wrinkled
There are small stains everywhere. This feels really old...
I bought 3 for 1000 yen back in college.
Umm-mmm~
LOVE
They're too baggy...
I've been using these as my pajamas.
And above all...

People don't usually buy anything that's plain white other than shirts and underwear, right?
Women don't have that problem.
Don't you have anything more slender and white?
Underwear?
Not underwear.
Then I don't.
That's why plain and simple should be your final goal.
Use the simplest items possible.
The ones without a front pocket
But that's fine, onii-chan.
In fashion, looking simple means looking mature.
You can use something with a slim border too.
This is one of my shirts.
Other than the plain ones...

I know a really good one. Try searching for it.
On the computer?
We want something white with a nice silhouette, Something like a slender Kattosou.
This is a good chance for us to buy some.
Alright, search on UNIQLO...
Why don't you do it, Tamaki?
YOU DO IT!!
I... M...
You don't have to speak at the speed you type.
Just tell me the whole thing.
S...
U

Yeah, it's great huh?

Eh? It says here that 2 of these will cost me under 1000 yen.

UNIQLO's Supima Cotton Fraise T-shirts.

Supima is fine and all, but this next one is my recommendation.

2 of these will cost you 2500 yen.

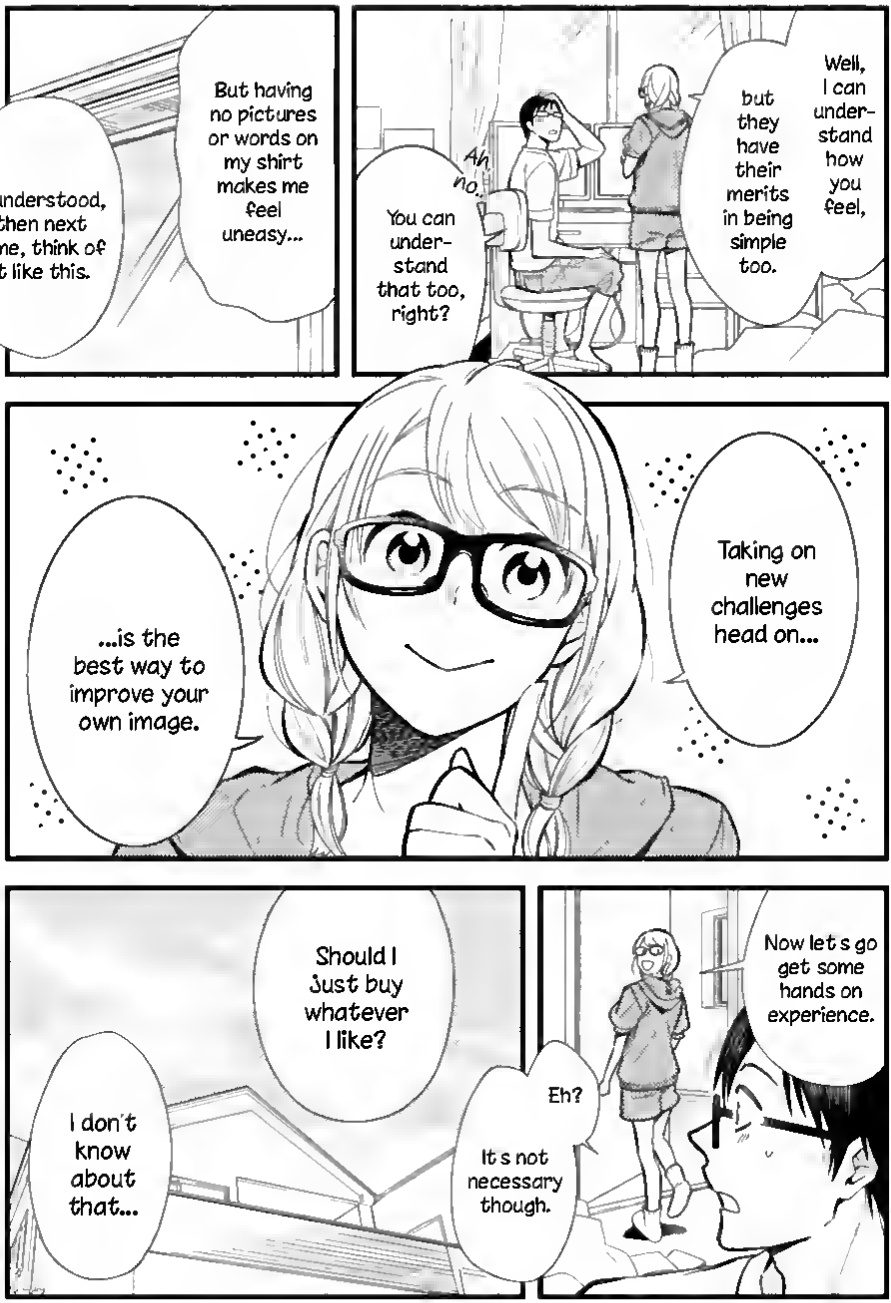
The slender design of this one is aimed towards the more extravagant Japanese people. They look really cool.

Hanes' Japan-fit Crew neck T-shirts.

No...

It feels kind of embarrassing if it's not at least glue-color...

But in reality, a plain white T-shirt for men is kind of like underwear.



But having no pictures or words on my shirt makes me feel uneasy...
...understood, then next time, think of it like this.
Well, I can understand how you feel,
but they have their merits in being simple too.
Ah no.
You can understand that too, right?
Taking on new challenges head on...
...is the best way to improve your own image.
Should I just buy whatever I like?
I don't know about that...
Eh?
It's not necessary though.
Now let's go get some hands on experience.

I bought it...
The sleeves are the most important part.
Picking one with short and slender sleeves will make you look neat and mature.
When it comes to slender T-shirts, you can't just pick whatever.
What snack should we get~?
.....
Do you understand now?
Yeah.

Going shopping?
Yeah, with my sister.
Thank you for looking after my brother.
Oh hey, Yuusuke.
Oh, Oda.
You've become such a fashionable beauty!
Eh? Tamaki-chan!?
Are you still afraid of cockroaches?
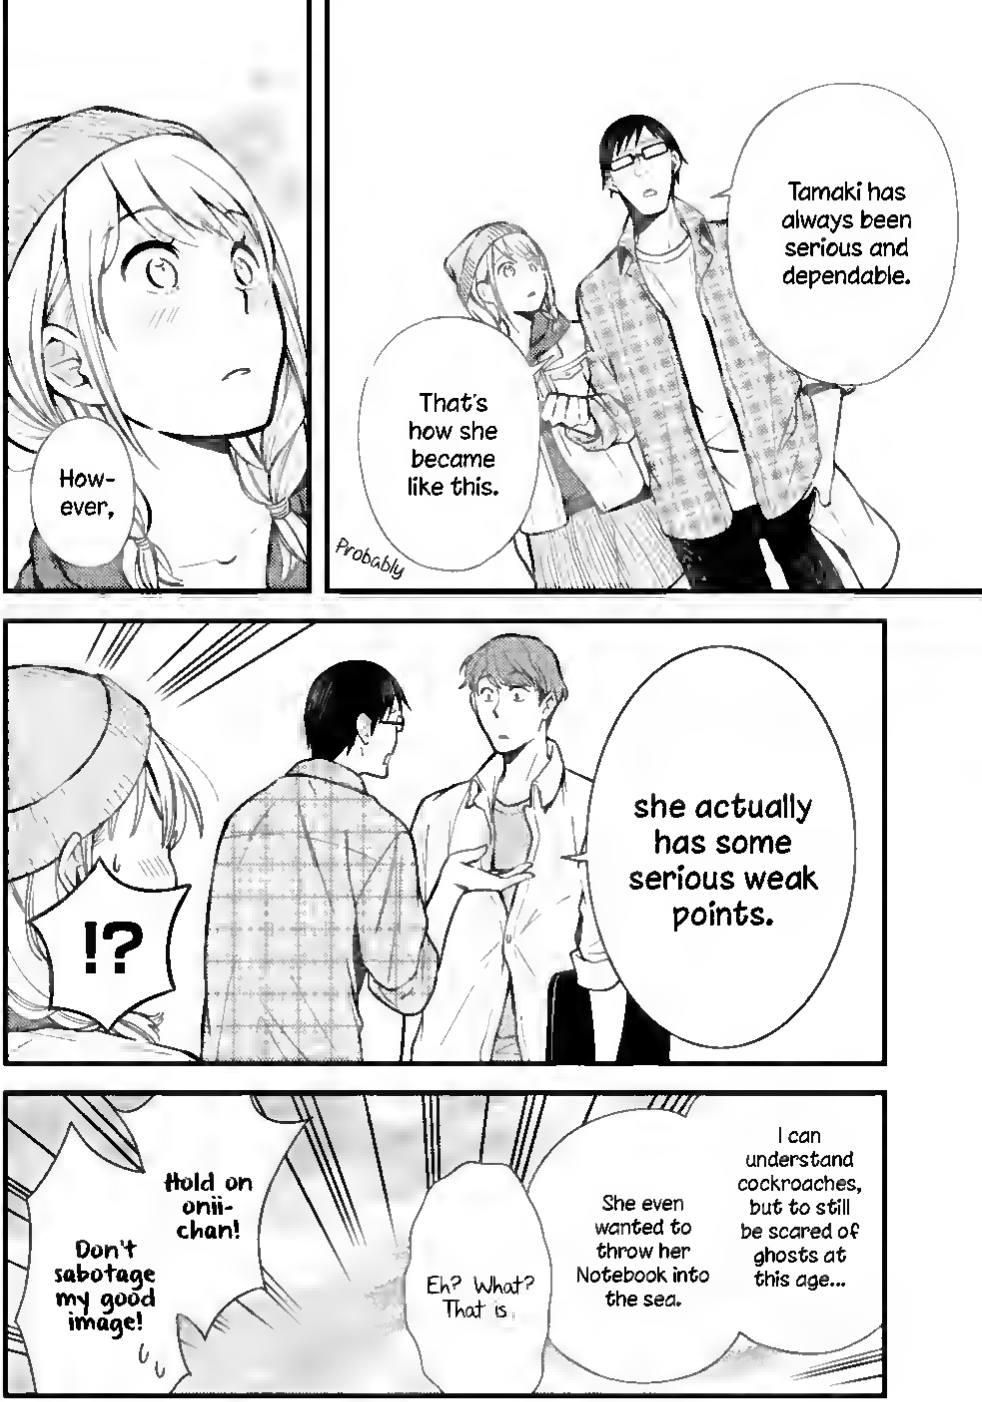
It
Shes completely different from my image of her back in elementary school.
Well, I guess thats just natural.
Thats not true though, Oda.



How-ever,
Tamaki has always been serious and dependable.
That's how she became like this.
Probably
!?
she actually has some serious weak points.
Don't sabotage my good image!
Hold on onii-chan!
Eh? What? That is
She even wanted to throw her Notebook into the sea.
I can understand cockroaches, but to still be scared of ghosts at this age...

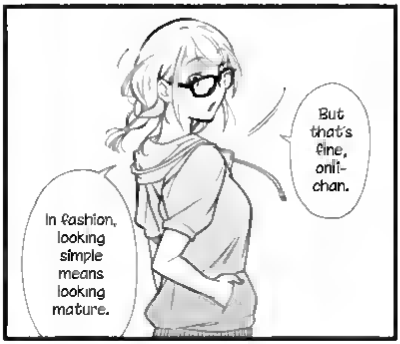
Plain Kattosou



People who are unfamiliar with fashion have a tendency to avoid plain, unshowy items. They feel that simple shirts or kattosou are unfashionable, and will only wear these by accident. This is especially true regarding plain kattosous, which people mistake as "just underwear."

But if you recall our previous talk about suits, you'd remember that suits themselves are of simple basic style with little to no accessories
In order to incorporate the mature image invoked by suits into our clothing, we too must embrace simplicity. It is said that "loud designs will make you look childish, while simplicity makes you look mature."

However, with this in mind, simple does not mean that "anything goes." You need to pick kattosou with slender, beautiful silhouettes that do not look like undershirts.
In Chapter 6, Tamaki's chosen brand of kattosou is Hanes' Japan-fit. This item was tailored with a Japanese figure in mind. With its fit and reasonable price, the Hanes' Japan-fit shirt exploded in popularity in spring-summer of 2015. While this shirt is popular, well-fitted T-shirts are something many brands release every year. Even though some people aren't comfortable with wearing plain shirts, they should gather up their courage and give it a try! To be simple is to be mature. Definitely give it a go!
